OUR HISTORY

The Taconic Golf Club and Our Dining Experience

Nestled in the heart of Williamstown, Massachusetts, Taconic Golf Club has been a cornerstone of the community since its inception in 1896. What began with three Williams College students placing tomato cans in a field has blossomed into a nationally recognized 18-hole course, celebrated for its challenging layout and scenic beauty.

In 1955, the clubhouse was established at the intersection of Water and Meacham Streets, providing golfers and guests with a welcoming space to relax and connect. Over the years, our restaurant has evolved into a culinary destination, offering a modern dining experience that complements the rich history of the club.

Today, we invite you to indulge in our thoughtfully crafted menu, where contemporary flavors meet timeless tradition. Whether you're savoring a meal on our terrace overlooking the lush fairways or enjoying a drink with friends after a round, our restaurant embodies the spirit of Taconic—where history and modernity converge to create unforgettable experiences.
